

Camps for children with health needs (and families where indicated) *

	Name	Location	Price	Age range	About	URL
England	Bendrigg Trust	Lake District and Yorkshire Dales National Parks	From £174 per person for 2 nights	Some activities require children to be a certain size to fit harnesses. May be suitable from 4 years upwards.	For families to attend together and meet with other families. Activities include arts and crafts, sensory swing, canoeing and local visits. Accessible accommodation with some specialist equipment.	www.bendrigg.org.uk/what-we-do/family-courses/
	Camp Jojo	Colchester, Essex	£50 per family	Up to 17 years old for child with complex needs, although siblings can be any age.	For families of children with complex needs and disabilities, Camp Jojo offers accessible camping, use of specialist equipment and activities.	https://www.campjojo.org/
	Destination Florida	Orlando, Florida	Free	For 6–16-year-olds from the North of England	A trip for 8 days for children with life-threatening illnesses or conditions. The group is accompanied by doctors, nurses and physiotherapists.	https://www.destinationflorida.org.uk/
	Heswall Camp	Barnstondale Centre, Wirral and Barton Camp, North Somerset	Free	9–15-year-olds	Activities include outings to local attractions and on-site activities such as art, crafts or an in-camp cinema. The camp lasts for a week.	https://www.heswallcamp.org.uk/

Mersea Island Festival	Mersea Island, Essex	From £155 (for under 18s) and £175 for adults, for 3 nights.	For all ages, but more activities available for 8-year-olds and above	For families , including people with physical or learning disabilities. This festival includes a range of activities, including sports, art, music and outings. Most accommodation is tents, but there are a few cabins/rooms available. First aid support is available, but other medical care is not provided.	https://www.merseafestival.org.uk/
Sense Holiday	Not specified	Not specified	Children and adults	Holidays for people with complex communication including sensory impairment, learning and physical disabilities and autism. The applications are closed for 2023, but more information may become available for 2024 holidays in due course.	https://www.sense.org.uk/our-services/meeting-people/go-on-a-sense-holiday/
The Children's Adventure Farm Trust	Altrincham, Cheshire	Free	For children up to the age of 17	For children with physical and learning disabilities, sensory impairments and terminal illnesses. The residential visits include outdoor activities such as spending time with farm animals, going to the adventure playground and using art and sensory rooms.	https://caft.co.uk/visit-caft/residential-breaks/
Woodlarks Campsite	Farnham, Surrey	2024 price: Explorers - £190 2024 price: Adventurers - £180	Explorers – for girls aged 10-19 Adventurers – for boys aged 10-18	Camps for young people with disabilities and additional needs. The camps include a range of activities and the facilities are accessible.	https://explorerscamp.com/ https://adventurerscampwoodlarks.com/

Various	Newman Holiday Trust	Various sites in England, and Strathallan, Perthshire	Free	For ages 5-16.	Holidays for children with special needs. Activities may include going to theme parks, creative workshops, discos and doing arts and crafts. There is a qualified nurse on hand.	https://www.newmantrust.org/
	Dreamflight	Orlando, Florida	Free	For 8–14-year-olds	A trip for 10 days for children with illnesses or disabilities across the UK. The group is accompanied by doctors, nurses and physiotherapists.	https://www.dreamflight.org/
	Over The Wall	Forgandenny, Perth; Staffordshire	Free	Residential camps (8–17-year-olds) Virtual camps (6–17-year-olds)	Residential camps include camps for siblings and families . They have a team of doctors, paramedics and nurses onsite who can provide care. There are a number of eligibility criteria relating to your child's health and abilities. These can be found here: https://www.otw.org.uk/criteria/ Virtual camps are for those unable to travel. Both forms of camp include a range of activities.	https://www.otw.org.uk/

*None of these camps are endorsed by SOFT UK.